

MEDIA RELEASE

10th December 2020

Lachlandcare Representative awarded Life Membership with Landcare NSW

Lachlandcare region representative, Keith Hyde, was the recipient of the Landcare NSW Honorary Lifetime Member Award at the 2020 AGM.

Landcare NSW Chair, Stephanie Cameron praised Keith and his commitment to Landcare on a state, regional and local level.

Representing LachLandcare Inc since 2013, Landcare NSW Chair, Stephanie Cameron commended Keith and his commitment to Landcare on a national, state and local level and his support to her as Chair.

“Keith has been an absolutely focused, essential giver of his time and knowledge. I have been the recipient of that knowledge over the years and I’m very thankful for his guidance and support

“The knowledge Keith has brought to the organisation over the past 7 years, has helped strengthen the foundation of Landcare NSW, and we will continue to build on his knowledge in the future,” she said.

Keith has worked in Natural Resource Management and rural policy and issues management at a regional, State and Federal level.

He was the inaugural Managing Director of the Rural Industries Research and Development Corporation (RIRDC) and a founding member of the Australian Rural Leadership Foundation.

Keith commended Steph and the Landcare NSW Council and staff, saying it had been a pleasure to be involved in the growth of the state body and movement.

“It's been a really terrific journey in Landcare. The faces may have changed, but the atmosphere has not changed, and we have all worked really well together.

It’s been a really great experience and I thank everyone involved in making my time with Landcare NSW so enjoyable.”

Keith is an active member of the Hovells Creek Landcare Group near Cowra and Landcare practitioner on his beef cattle property in Central West NSW.

MEDIA ENQUIRIES

Samantha Stratton – 0487 767 955